Pt VI, Line 11b The 990 is presented by the CPA to the CEO for review. After initial review, the CEO presents copies to the board for their review. If there are any revisions or questions, they are presented and discussed with the CPA. The 990 is resubmitted to the CEO for final review and signature and is filed by the Organization.

Pt VI, Line 12c On a yearly basis, all officers, directors or trustees, and key employees are required to disclose any interests that could give rise to conflicts. Each case is reviewed by the board to determine level of conflict if any. If necessary, the board decides the best course of action for the organization in accordance with IRS guidelines and requirements.

Pt VI, Line 15a The organization uses an outside professional firm, National PEO, to handle all human resource issues. National PEO provides the board and management with comparative data for executive positions, primarily the CEO, and counsels on appropriate decisions. The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors makes recommendations for any increases or salary/compensation decisions to the full board, and a vote is taken and recorded in board minutes. The President and CEO works with National PEO to determine competitive and comparable salary ranges, and salary decisions for other managers in the organization. None of the board members receive compensation.

Pt VI, Line 19 The organization provides full financial disclosure when requested by foundations, grantors, donors, rating organizations, etc. Our 990 is available online through many different sources, including Guidestar. In addition, we include key financial statements in an annual report which is sent to the people on our mailing list and is available on our website. All new board members (and committee members) receive a board orientation packet which includes our conflict of interest policy, our by-laws and other governing documents. Board members are provided with updated financial documents at monthly board meetings and
